SOUTHERN PROBLEM.

In speaking of the Southern States Immigration convention, which is to meet in Nashville November 13, 14 and 15, the Nashville American says:

The south has come abruptly against the labor question. Every day the negro becomes less satisfactory less reliable and more hazardous as a dependable factor in the industrial situation. No man carrying on a large enterprise, whether it be manufacturing, mining, agricultural or construction work, knows how many of his help will turn up on any given day, and it is getting to be frequently the case that they do not work more than half the week.
Men with large funds invested in costly machinery, or who have made bond to perform a given work within a given time are looking around for means to escape from the predicament.

The way out is through the industrious immigrant from Europe or the northwest. The problem is to get them here. We need them not only for all manner of construction work and as agricultural laborers but in developing and building up our country.

When a man has the nerve to leave his native land and travel across the ocean to a foreign shore, he has ambition and he has energy, and as a general rule, he develops into a good citizen, law abiding, thrifty and industrious. For too many years the south has turned up its nose at the immigrant, but we have learned our mistakes, our eyes have been opened and the enterprising men throughout the south are ready to do what they can to bring the immigrant here.

Charleston has been made a port of entry, and Galveston is one already. J. T. Harahan of the Illinois Central railway, spent some time in Europe this summer in the interest of the port of New Orleans.

The immigrant issue is a very important one in the south, and

THE TORTOISE AUTO "PROTECTOR."

the Nashville convention will no doubt be of great service in helping the movement forward.

Fussy newspapers are still fuming over the fact that President Hipple, of the defunct Real Estate Trust company, did not swear, chew smoke nor drink, and stood high in the church, and some false impressions, evil in their influences, are being disseminated by editorial comment on a news feature that gained wide circulation, chiefly by reason of its novelty. Did most of our criminals eschew the common vices these facts in connection with Hipple's life would have been taken for granted, since his association with the church had nothing to do with his crookedness and only proves that he was an abnormally developed hypocrite. Of course, there are rogues in the church. Judas betrayed the Christ; but that incident cast no shadow on the church. In spite of the Hipple episode, we will continue to put our trust in men who guide their lives by the moral code, only exercising the same caution we would in dealing with a sinner.

President Palma, of Cuba, has decided on an aggressive campaign.
The opposition long since adopted the same policy. Cuba leaders have abandoned the ancient Anglo-Saxon method of election and appeal to the country according to the custom of their Latin-American sister republics. An aggressive campaign in South American contemplation is civil war. Perhaps, it is wise. If they believe in that kind of election the more of them killed, the better. The hand of Providence may be wielding the machete in Cuba. Not even the most selfish patriots in this country can now criticize our discretion in giving Cuba her independence. We wouldn't object to owning Cuba, but we do not care to father a Cuban election.

The New York union is ready to knock Conreid's Metropolitan grand opera chorus, which is bound from Europe. If Herr Conreid is "real forehanded" now, he will institute a season of Il Trovatore, while the anvil chorus is hot to strike.

A scientist of Louisiana expects to make denatured alcohol from centrifugal molasses. In Kentucky we take our alcohol natural, and like our molasses rather centripetal—tending to hit the "center of the spot," as it were.

Grand juries in many cities are after the ice trust, and they have been after the trusts so long it is patent they intend to press their investigation far into the winter.

According to the Mayfield Monitor a man in Graves county raised a stock of pop corn from a planting of "horse" corn. If you don't believe it, he can show you the stock.

The Independence league of New York nominates William Randolph Hearst for governor. In baseball parlance that would be called an outlaw league.

The battleship Des Moines has sailed away under sealed orders.
Perhaps, she has gone to join the fleet at Smithland.

NO PROSECUTIONS.

Directors of Trust Company Act in Right Spirit.

Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—In view of the agreement of the directorate of the wrecked Real Estate and Trust company to put up sufficient money to rehabilitate the bank, and for the still more important reason that his investigation has not revealed any criminal intent upon the part of that body, District Attorney John C. Bell announced today there will probably be no further prosecutions.

HAYANA

IS THREATENED AND POPULACE
IS FRIGHTENED.

Loyal Troops Parade Before President in Streets of Capital and Are Cheered.

Havana, Sept. 12.—So far as war developments went, today was one of the quietest since the outbreak of the insurrection; but the public interest was deeper and discussion more animated and earnest than on any preceding day. The government's outright declaration that the war will be pursued to a finish was everywhere the sole topic of conversation. That fighting of a far more desperate character will result as soon as the news shall have spread throughout the provinces is not doubted in any quarter. The fear of an attack by the insurgents on Havana is spreading and there are rumors or less authentic from all directions of new uprisings in various quarters.

This afternoon the government forces in Havana paraded through the principal streets and were greeted with some enthusiasm. The parade, which was headed by the fine artillery band, consisted of 400 mounted rural guards, clad in the regulation khaki uniform of that organization, 200 mounted city militia, 600 infantry rural guards and volunteers, and a city militia company of artillery with two machine gun batteries.

The parade was reviewed by President Palma at the palace.

PTOMAIN POISONING.

From Packing House Goods at Sterling, Illinois.

Sterling, Ill., Sept. 12.—Physicians of this city report 40 cases of ptomaine poisoning, several patients are in a serious condition. The poisoning was caused by eating pressed corned beef, purchased from the local market. The food came originally from a packing house.

Mr. J. S. Mitchell, who has been residing at Kenton, Tenn., for a year has returned to the city.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO WAIT

An Assistant of Nature.
One of the most interesting things of this day of interesting things is the great success being achieved by osteopathy.

There is hardly a day that some cure which is deserving of attracting much attention, is not made by this new science, and the more it is studied, and the better it is known, the easier it is to see why it is so.

Osteopathy merely aids nature to cure.

It is a system of healing built up on demonstrable facts.

It discovers the cause of disease, and treats it by scientific manipulations in order to correct disorders and bring about a natural condition.

Nearly all diseases yield to the treatment, and the diseases local to Paducah do so most readily.

In rheumatism, liver and bowel, or stomach troubles, chronic headaches tired-out, run-down conditions, nervousness, its success has been very marked.

I should like to have you call to discuss your particular case at any time, and not only will I tell you frankly what osteopathy will do for you, but refer you to well-known Paducah people whom it has done much for.

OVER FIVE HUNDRED DELEGATES COMING

other delegation.

Mr. W. E. Aton, of Milburn, Ky., promises to be here with a good, strong delegation.

Hon. W. J. Stone, of Kuttawa, Ky., is working earnestly for the success of the convention and will see to it that we have a strong delegation from Kuttawa.

Mr. J. E. Bridgewater, of Bardwell, Ky., is working up a large delegation from his point.

Citizens of Smithland, Ky., are enthusiastic over the movement, and the indications are that the largest delegation at the convention will come from Smithland and that section.

Columbus, Ky., and Hickman, Ky., are working on their delegations and it is safe to say that large delegations will come from each point.

T. R. Green, secretary of the Milburn Commercial club, is hustling for a great delegation from Milburn, and it is assured that they will be in force.

Lamasco, Ky., Morganfield, Ky., Albany, Ky., Tiline, Ky., Pinkneyville, Ky., and Birdsville, Ky., have all appointed substantial delegations and will be well represented.

Calvert City, Ky., comes to the front with a splendid list of delegates.

Mr. S. P. Brents, of Ida, Clinton county, Ky., and Mr. R. F. Blakely, of Ida, Ky., and Mr. Frank Robinson and J. R. Farris, of Salem, Ky., are heading the movement in their section and working up strong delegations.

Kevil sends in a list of delegates of sixty from Kevil and surrounding territory.

Bayou, Joy and Carrsville, Ky., have promised to send strong delegations.

So far over five hundred delegates have been listed by appointment of mayor's delegations and acceptance of invitations direct of the Commercial club.

The indications are from seven hundred to one thousand delegates will attend this convention, which will make it the greatest popular movement ever known in this section of the state.

As Louisville Sees It.

The following letter has been received from the Louisville Commercial club:

My Dear Mr. Coons: I have watched with much interest the movement you have inaugurated to bring desirable immigrants to western Kentucky. I am certain that the club will welcome the opportunity to appoint delegates to your convention.

I am using quite a long story in the September issue of Business of which I am editor, on your convention. Yours very truly,

R. E. HUGHES, Secretary.

BLISS AGAIN CRITICALLY ILL.

Former Governor of Michigan Taken to Alma Sanitarium.

Saginaw, Mich., Sept. 12.—Ex-Governor Bliss has suffered a relapse during the last week and today was taken to the Alma sanitarium in the hope of deriving benefit from the treatment. He is in the same critical condition he was two months ago.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Prominent Men Die.

Cadiz Ky., Sept. 12.—F. A. Magraw, a prominent business man of Roaring Springs, this county, is dead.

G. A. Shoemaker, of this place, a prominent citizen, died of consumption of the bowels.

Fatal Runaway.

Fulton, Ky., Sept. 12.—Mrs.
George C. Payne, one of the most prominent women in this city, was out driving with her sister, when the horse, became frightened, throwing her out, and inflicting injuries which two hours later caused her death.
Her companion was only slightly injured.

Yatching Party Safe.

All doubt as to the safety of Arthur J. Moxham and party, who were reported to have been lost while cruising off the coast of Labrador in Mr.
Moxham's private yacht, the Constance, was removed late today by the receipt of the following telegram from Quebec: "The yacht Constance was A. J. Moxham and family on board, is here."

Fatal Family Quarrel.

Clinton, Ky., Sept. 12.—Near Clinton, in this county, Dr. Jeff Moore, a physician, shot and instantly killed his step-brother, Van Williams, at the bedside of J. E. Moore, the father of the man who did the shooting.
The two men had a dispute, though the cause of the quarrel is unknown.
Dr. Moore came here from Nevada, Mo., to be at the bedside of his father and Mr. Williams came from Emory for the same purpose. Moore has been arrested.

DEATHS OF A DAY

Charles Carter.

Charles Carter, 82 years old, a farmer of Kaler, Graves county, died last night of general debility. He leaves a wife and daughter. He was
